

BRIDGING

THE GAP

Connecting the immigrant community to resources that will help people navigate the legal system

Thursday October 25, 2018
1 PM in the Budarz Theater

This is a workshop for library staff, educators, community organizations and elected officials. As members of the community on the front line serving the immigrant community, we need to be aware of authoritative information that will help people with legal issues. This workshop will provide us with useful electronic and community-based resources including, Access to Justice, Library Portfolios, Law/HelpNY, immi and Neighbors Link.

Workshop leaders include:

Denise Kronstadt, Esq.

Deputy Executive Director/Director of Advocacy and Policy Fund for Modern Courts

Karin Anderson Ponzer, Esq. Ph.D.

Director of Legal Services Neighbors Link Community Law Practice

Quisquella Addison Esq.

Law/HelpNY Program Director Pro Bono Net
